WORLD FOLK VISION®
THE WORLD AWARDS

at the first stage of the nomination, the Selection Committee considers applications and decides on the participation of candidates in the competition for the World Award in the field of Culture and Art "World Folk Vision";

at the second stage of the nomination, the members of the International Council for the Award evaluate the materials submitted by the candidates and make conclusions on the possibility of nominating candidates for the World Award in the field of Culture and Art "World Folk Vision";

at the third stage, the International Council for the Award at a special meeting selects winners from among the nominees for the award based on the conclusions of the Committees;

at the fourth stage, the International Council for the Award at a solemn official ceremony announces the names of the winners (laureates) and presents the Prize set consisting of a diploma and a bronze statuette (sculpture) of the goddess Muse;

The International Council for the Award independently determines the number of prize winners in each nomination, direction, content of directions and categories of the prize;

The decision to award the World Award in the field of Culture and Art "World Folk Vision" comes into force after an official, public award ceremony.
